

Workshop Presentation

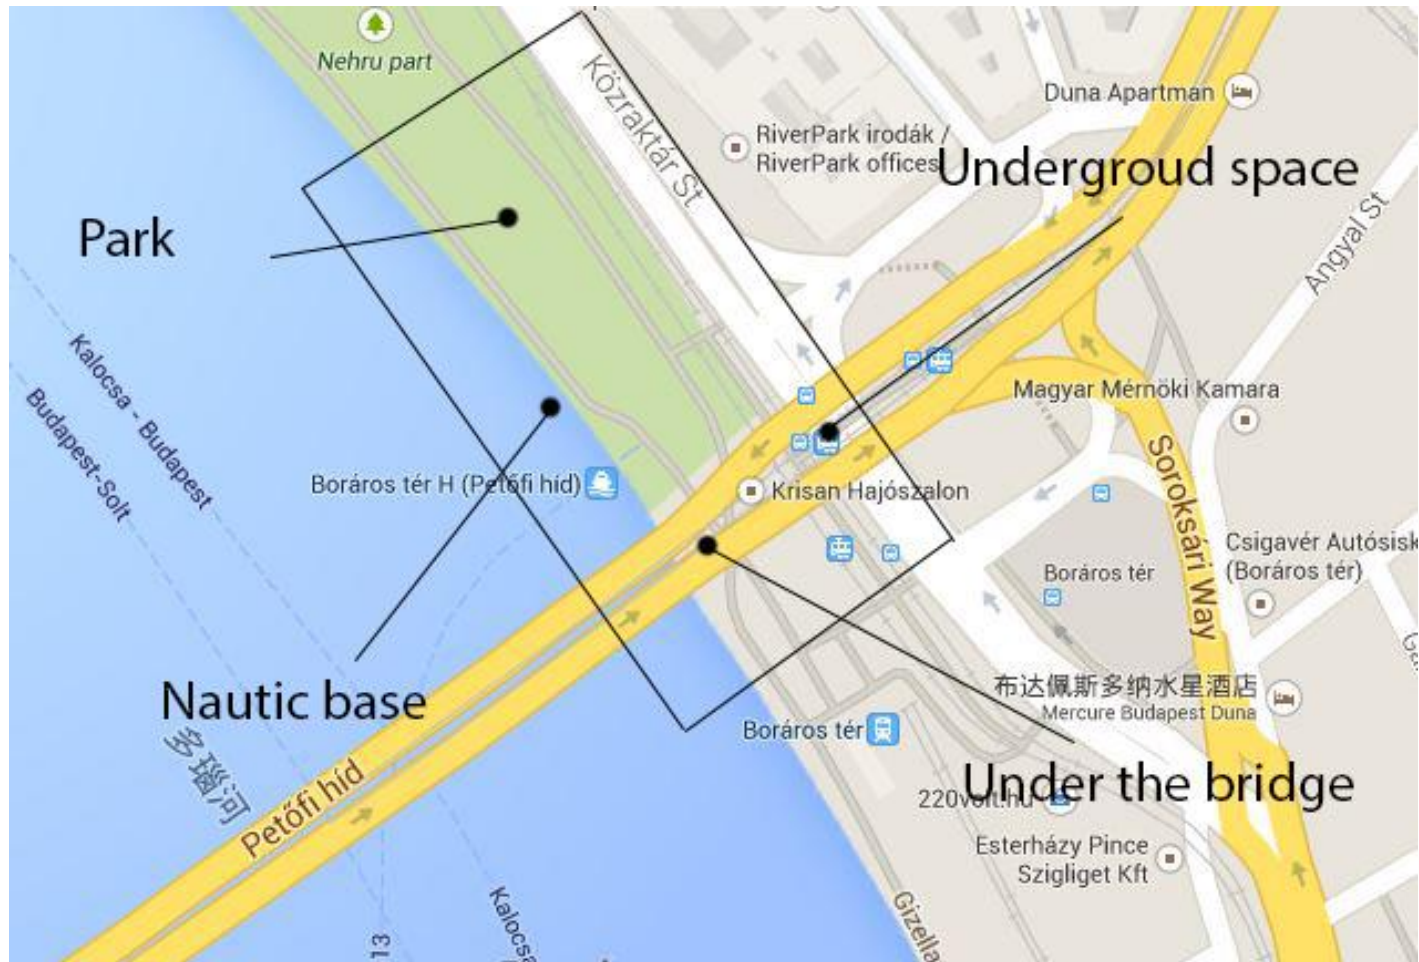

Athens 2014

BME 9 – Sustainability Urban Development

Giorgio Giuliani – Sijun Rao – Fanni Barsony – Ebtehal Tarek – Audrey Delpech

Focusing Area

Mission

Maximum vitalisation of existing unused public spaces sustainably.

Goals :

- To serve as integrated hub for Budapest college student.
- To contribute to the economical and social development of surrounding area.
- Build bottom up sustainable youth community

Method

- By ensuring that whole process, design and implementation based on youth participation, to ensure sustainability and growth.
 - promote competition for designs.
 - Events and seminars.
- Develop some basic infrastructure units

Research and Analyses

Map of Problems

Hygiene problems

Social problems

- Homeless
- Alcohol and drugs

Security problems

Unused spaces

Visual problems

- Bad condition of infrastructure, facilities
 - Lack of attractiveness

Lack of connectivity between the city and the river

Research and Analyses

Strengths

- Strategic position
 - Connectivity with Danube
 - Accessibility with public transportation

Weaknesses

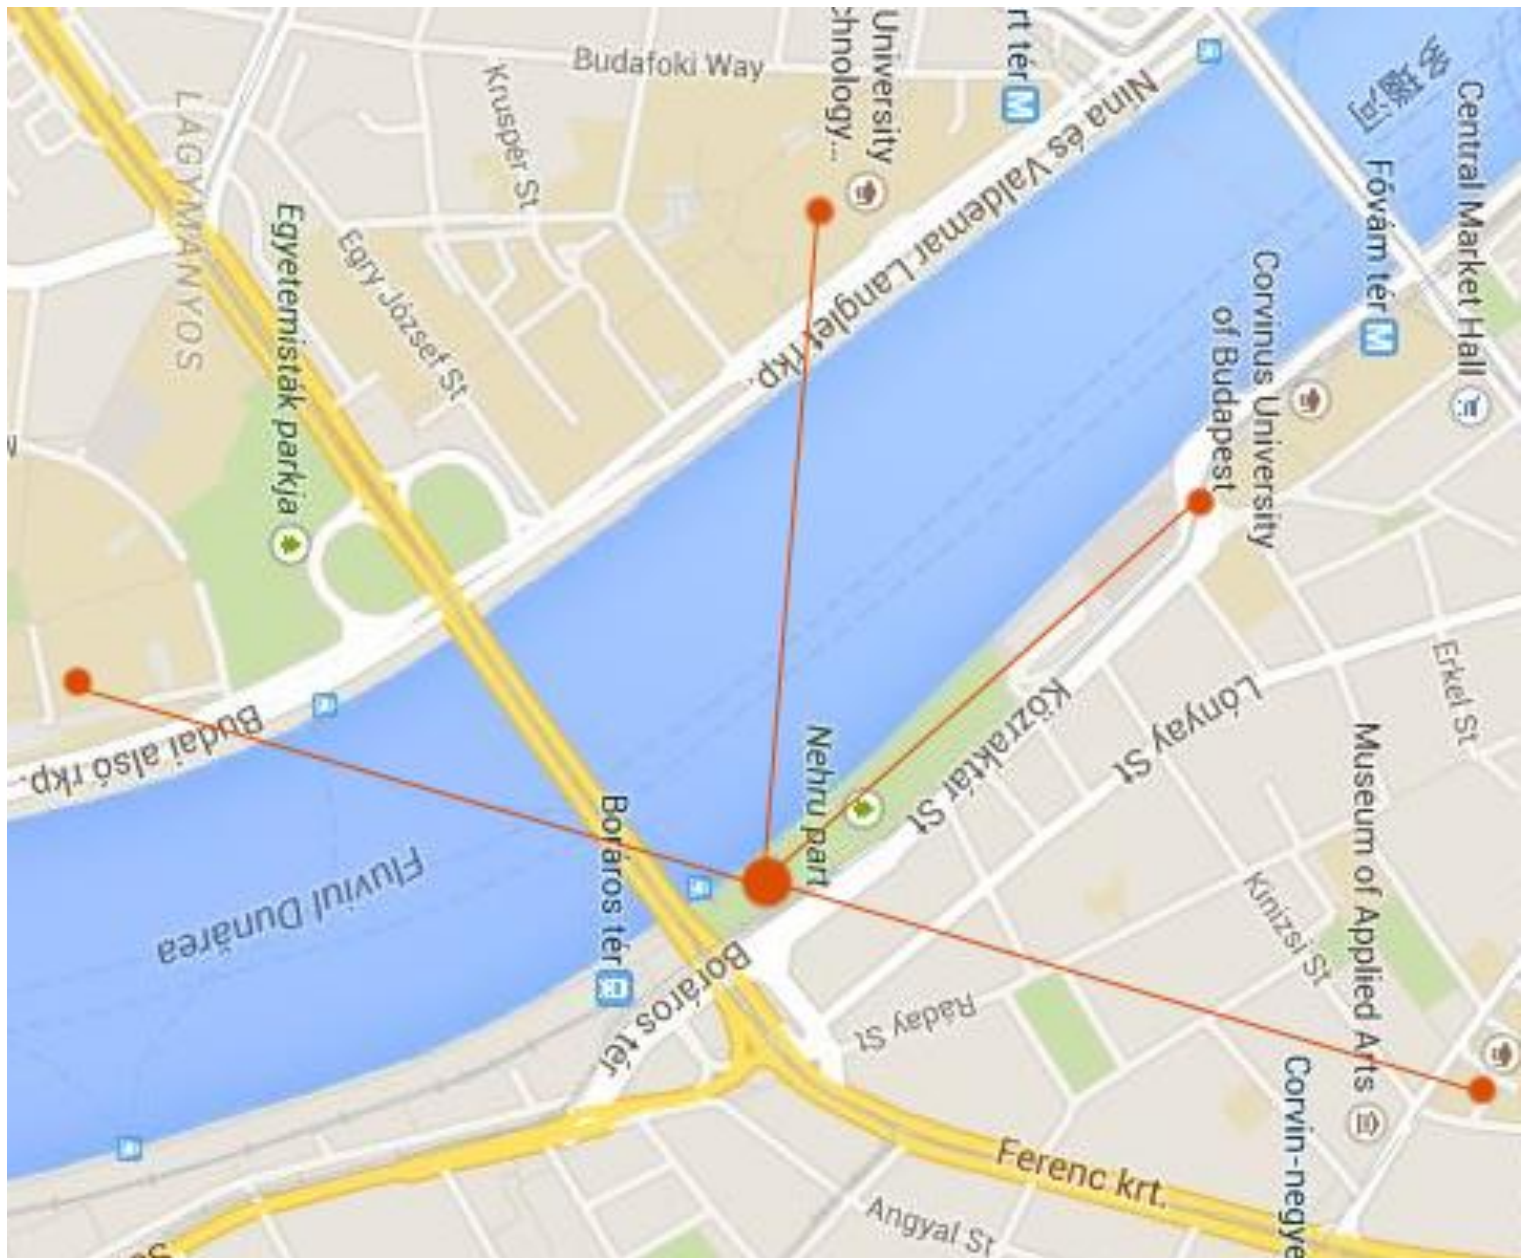

- Heavy traffic
- Bad reputation
- Bad condition of infrastructure
- Lack of maintenance

Opportunities

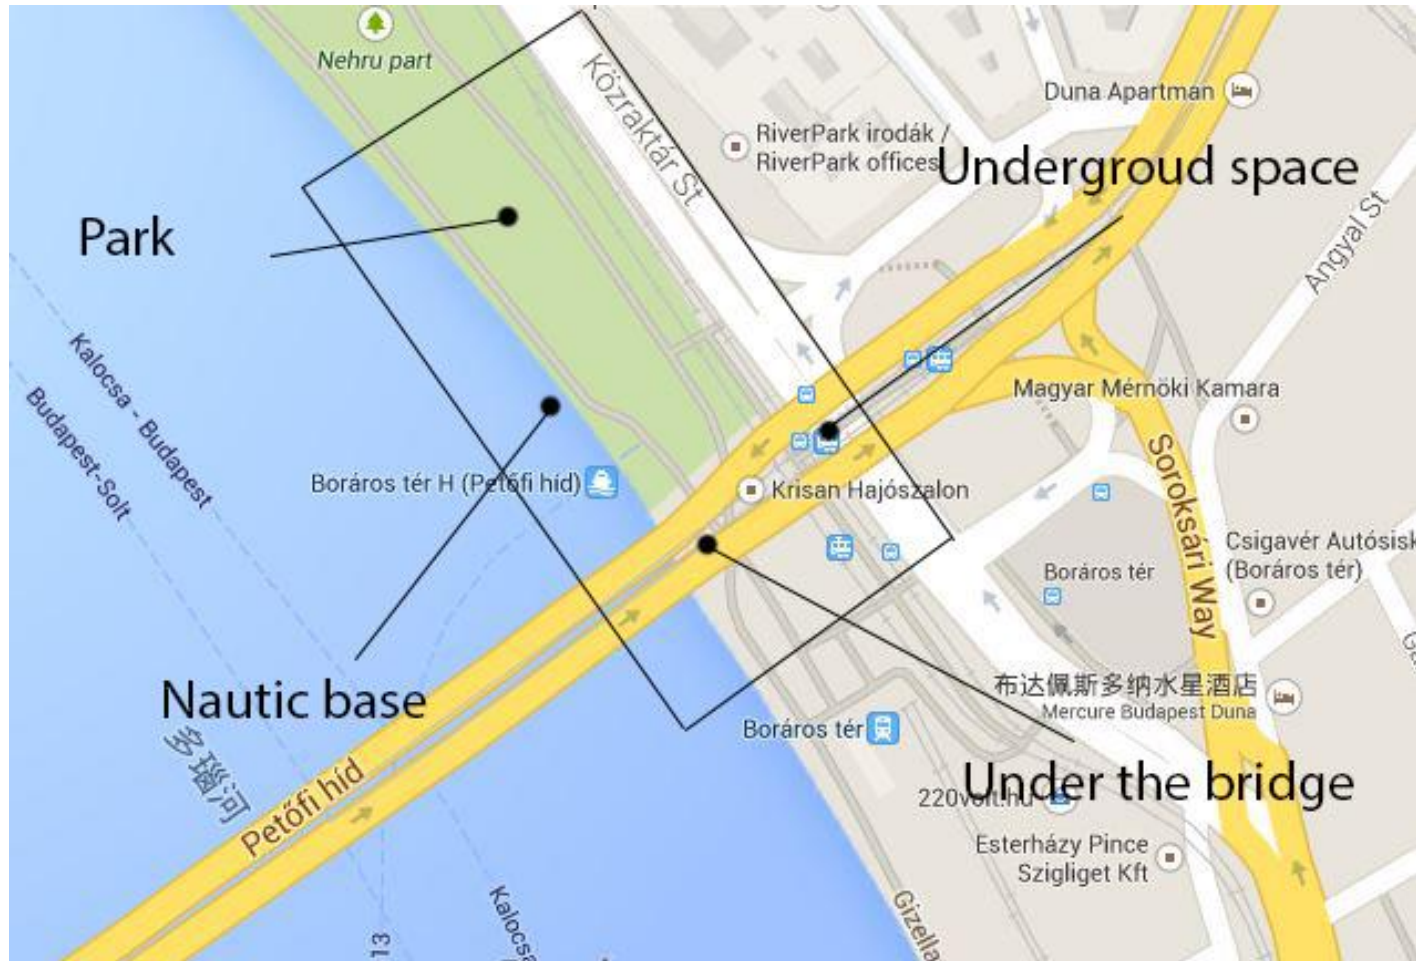

- Close to universities
- Empty places

Threats

- Flood
- Residential population

Proposed Strategy

The Park

Objective : Public youth friendly space.

Studying space

Seating

Electricity

Coffee 24h

Social space

Cosy seats

Music

Food

Beer

Under the bridge

- Objective : - Create accessible cheap culture space
- Provide basic infrastructure for bottom up initiatives and performances

Cultural space

Stage (Sawy Wheel Cultural centre, Cairo)

Cinema cheap

Art space

Host for exhibitions

Art market

Free wall

Nautical Base

Objective : To capitalise the existing low bank of the river.

Sailing (Billancourt, Paris)

Other possible sport activities

Underground area

Objective : Find a sustainable way to rehabilitate this existing commercial area.

Innovative art expression space with a “colourful festival”

Organic contribution to economic growth

Thank you for your attention !

Any Questions ?